& MEMORY CARE

Dear Families:

Happy June! We hope you have enjoyed some summer fun activities and are looking forward to more as Summer will officially start this month. June is a month of celebration with Father's Day and National Nursing Assistants Week. See below for some other often unrecognized holidays that are just as fun to celebrate.

Happy National Nursing Assistant's Week - June 18-24

We want to recognize our FABULOUS CNAs for National Nurses Assistant's Week during June 18-24. Their compassion and love for our patients make a difference every day. Please join us in thanking our CNAs for all of their hard work and dedication this week.

Father's Day - June 18

We want to wish you a Happy Father's Day from NHC. If you need help picking out a perfect gift for a special DAD, check out these great gift ideas_

Iced Tea Day - June 10

What better way to cool off on a hot day than with a cold glass of iced tea?

Whether you like it sweet or unsweet, hot or iced, tea is a known drink worldwide, so it is only fitting it gets a national day.

Let us know your favorite tea in the survey HERE.

Alzheimer's and Brain Awareness Month

At NHC, we raise money in various events throughout the year for the Alzheimer's Association. Worldwide there are over 55 million people affected by this disease or another form of dementia. If you are supporting a loved one's journey through Alzheimer's, please check out this resource here. We appreciate your support in helping raise awareness and support the Alzheimer's Association.
