November

2021 welcome TO THE TEAM

My name is Alicia Bommarito. I was born, raised and currently live in Carthage with my family. I’ve been married to my husband, Jeremiah, for six years. We have a blended family with five boys- ages range from 8 to 14. My oldest has a lot of different special needs that has given me insight on being a caretaker to someone with a feeding tube, seizures, and other health issues. I graduated from MSSU with a Bachelor of Arts in sociology. I’ve worked with children at an outpatient mental health facility in a case management role previously. I enjoy reading, listening to music, going on hikes and spending time with my family. I have 3 dogs, 1 cat and a bearded dragon.

- November Fun Facts
