We here at Springfield Rehab and Healthcare understand how difficult it is for our residents and their families to not be able to see each other. Rest assured we as part of the residents extended family are doing everything we can to ensure our residents remain healthy and happy during this challenging time. Therefor we are sharing pictures of some of our daily activities on this page to help bridge the gaps currently between all of us.

3/25 Embracing the lighter side of life.

